

THERE'S ONLY ONE LAS VEGAS

Nowhere else in the world can you walk a mile and see the Eiffel Tower rising 50 stories tall, an erupting volcano, a one third replica of the Statue of Liberty, the skyline of New York, and take a gondola ride through the streets of Venice! Whether you crave a glitzy casino with slot machines and roulette tables, or a quiet four star dining experience and a Broadway show, Las Vegas has it all.

In 1931 gambling was legalized in Nevada and the basis for Las Vegas began. Since then Las Vegas has grown to an RV destination. Did you know that the city's famed strip has been designated as an All-American Road by the Federal Highway Administration? That makes it something of a crown jewel among the country's more than 130 nationally designated roads and scenic byways, with scarcely more than two-dozen roads having received the esteemed All-American designation.

Many begin their trip to Las Vegas with a drive along the fabled Strip. While purposely engaging in gridlock doesn't seem like fun at first, you begin to enjoy the long periods of inertia with a great view of the Strip in its latest incarnation.
